

Resolution No. 141

WHEREAS, chapter 80.50.071(c) Revised Code of Washington authorizes the charging of certificate holders for costs incurred for inspection and determination of compliance by the certificate holder with the terms of the certification relative to monitoring the effects of construction and operations of the facility; and

WHEREAS, The above referenced statute provides that each certificate holder shall deposit twenty thousand dollars payable to the State Treasurer, or such other amount as may be specified by Council rule, to cover such monitoring costs; and

WHEREAS, Permanent rules to implement this section are currently being developed by the Council;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED By the Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council that the following is hereby adopted as a temporary, emergency rule of the Council and shall be forwarded to the Code Revisers office for filing:

Each certificate holder shall pay such reasonable costs as are actually and necessarily incurred by the Council for inspection and determination of compliance by the certificate holder with the terms and conditions of the certificate and shall deposit funds therefore forthwith to the credit of the Washington State Treasurer. The amount of funds required to be placed on deposit by the certificate holder shall be determined as follows:

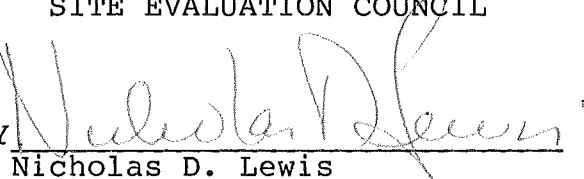

- (1) For the period subsequent to the date of execution of the site certification agreement until the beginning of construction or until the beginning of any work covered by an NPDES permit, five hundred dollars, and
- (2) For the period subsequent to beginning of construction or beginning of any work covered by an NPDES permit, twenty thousand dollars.

This rule is necessary for the public health, safety and welfare, and shall be effective immediately.

Dated this 27th day of March 1978.
