I am cannot believe the Hypocrisy of this state. You yowl and scream about the environment, yet you kill thousands of birds, render thousands of acres unusable by frying the ground, cut down trees, rip out hydroelectric damns, rail against nuclear energy, and THEN to top it off, you start screaming about your "democracy". Did anyone tell you about the U.N. Climate Conference in Brazil? They cut down 30,000 trees in the Rainforest to make their little building to hold their conference. Your so called Green Energy is a bunch of BS and you all damn well know it. This is just another way to control people. You tell us what we can and cannot have. You ignore the fact that these wind turbines do start wildfires. In fact, the last two really horrific wildfires around Ellensburg were started by your wind turbines. However, the icing on the cake is, the very people who are affected by this whole disaster you blatantly ignore. WE THE PEOPLE have told you NO!!!! on several occasions, and yet here we are.
